

Bookkeeper

0.8 fte – 30 hours – 4 days a week at the International Secretariat of FoEI in Amsterdam.

Friends of the Earth International (FoEI) is the world's largest grassroots environmental federation with over 70 member groups around the world. We focus on climate justice and energy, forests and biodiversity, food sovereignty, and economic justice. Our member groups are organized into four regional structures and fully participate in decision-making. A small International Secretariat (IS) in Amsterdam and a team of global staff support the member groups, campaigns, programs, and other activities of the federation through fundraising, program coordination, trainings, communications, and information management.

A small International Secretariat (IS) in Amsterdam and a team of global staff supports the member groups, campaigns, programs, and other activities of the federation through fundraising, program coordination, training, communications, and information management.

FoEI has been awarded an EU grant "People's power to drive transformative and sustainable solutions", with an expected duration of four years. The project aims to strengthen FoEI member groups and structures to work both independently and collectively to contribute to social and environmental justice in policy-making processes. The project covers 67 countries in 4 regions (Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America and Europe). Due to the size of this project, we are extending our finance team.
